“It’s a Wonderful Life” by Wychwood Players

Thursday 21st to Saturday 23rd November 2024 at The New Beaconsfield Hall

What’s a classic Christmas story? I know, it’s about tragic accidents, poisoning, financial mismanagement, cruelty, horrible people, insensitive building development and suicide. Ah. Or maybe it’s about bravery, an integrated, positive community where everyone contributes to it, kind people, redemption, forgiveness for your mistakes and a happy ending. Maybe it’s both those things. Maybe It’s A Wonderful Life. A classic Christmas story.

“To the Back of Beyond” by Stonesfield Players

Friday 22nd & Saturday 23rd at Stonesfield Village Hall.

An Indiana Jones panto style spoof by Becki Sherlaw-Johnson

WYCHWOOD PLAYERS PRESENT
An evening of plays by David Tristram with canapés

20th - 22nd June 2024

Wychwood Players are delighted to present two short plays by award winning playwright, David Tristram.

'Peas' is a delightful, comic exploration of a blind date set in a local pub. Has the dating agency found a match, and will this unusual couple find anything in common at all....?

Rebecca Johnson – Director

I hold a diploma in Technical Theatre Arts from the Rose Bruford College of Speech and Drama and have been directing and writing plays from the age of 17. Most of my work these days is with the Stonesfield Players directing plays including Twelfth Night, and Blythe Spirit. Also many works of my own including, Heirs and Disgraces, The Shadow of the Desert, The Private Collection.

Vikki Days – Daisy

Having enjoyed many Wychwood Players productions as an audience member, last year I finally had the courage to get up and have a go and try some acting. It seems I am drawn to comedy and David Tristram's 'Peas' is very funny in my opinion. I hope you will agree. It's a real will they, won't they...

Gareth Meager - Gerry

This is my WP debut, but I've been a regular on stage with Stonesfield Players for the last 4 years. Acting and performance is a passion of mine and I've been lucky enough to have had roles in productions as part of Oxford Fringe Festival in the last decade. I also perform in immersive theatre 'Murder Mystery' events around Oxfordshire, Warwickshire and Surrey.

'The Extraordinary Revelations of Orca the Goldfish' reveals the boring lives of Henry and his wife, Alice, may not be quite as dull as they seem! Orca, their goldfish, bears witness to a frolic through the pair's daydreams and fantasy worlds in this hilarious, sparkling comedy. Adult themes and moderate language.

Joanna Mckerlie – Alice

I have enjoyed working with WP for many years now, and Alice is a delightful character to play. I am a member of Spotlight and enjoy working in all media, whether film, stage, recording audiobooks, live events such as murder mystery or reading poetry to groups.

Aram Gregory – Henry

I've really enjoyed taking part in WP productions for a number of years now. Since Joanna and I performed another wonderful David Tristram play Late Entry in 2022, directed by our much missed friend Dudley Thompson, we have been keen to revisit this talented playwright's works. We've had a lot of fun with "Orca" and can't wait to share this with you...
